Allowed Claims: 2-10, 21-24.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103.

Specifically, with reference to independent claim 2, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed aberration changing optical system having the specific refractive power as claimed, and specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the claimed optical element as both rotatable about a rotational axis which is an optical axis of the optical system and tiltable relative to the optical axis.

Specifically, with reference to independent claim 21, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed projection exposure apparatus and specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, the claimed optical element having at least one of a diffractive, cylindrical or toric surface and the claimed transparent flat parallel plate and optical element as tiltable relative to the optical axis and rotatable about the optical axis. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 22, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed projection exposure apparatus and specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, the claimed optical elements each having at least one of a diffractive, cylindrical or toric surface and both of
